oftentimes people look at famous individuals and think that such people are exempt from the physical limitations that bind us all as humans unfortunately many times celebrities themselves think this is true a stark reminder of this is the effects of substance misuse that have claimed the lives of too many young otherwise healthy luminaries in the prime of their lives this book provides a background on each disorder or disease and in so doing shows the real humanity of the individual such is the case with baseball icon lou gehrig who was newly diagnosed with als but truthfully believed that he was still the luckiest man on the face of the earth little known facts are provided which enables the reader to feel like the subject has come alive as a real fleshandblood person from the pages of a history book a never before seen letter from general george patton is presented in this letter general patton describes the author s uncle as brave why did patton have a near obsession with bravery both that of his soldiers and himself was it because of the fear and humiliation which patton himself spent a lifetime overcoming as a result of his dyslexia

i consider myself the luckiest man on the face of the earth on july 4 1939 baseball great lou gehrig delivered what has been called baseball s gettysburg address at yankee stadium and gave a speech that included the phrase that would become legendary he died two years later and his fiery widow eleanor wanted nothing more than to keep his memory alive with her forceful will she and the irascible producer samuel goldwyn quickly agreed to make a film based on gehrig s life the pride of the yankees goldwyn didn t understand or care about baseball for him this film was the emotional story of a quiet modest hero who married a spirited woman who was the love of his life and after a storied career gave a short speech that transformed his legacy with the world at war and soldiers dying on foreign soil it was the kind of movie america needed using original scrips letters memos and other rare documents richard sandomir tells the behind the scenes story of how a classic was born there was the so called scarlett o hara like search to find the actor to play gehrig the stunning revelations elanor made to the scriptwriter paul gallico about her life with lou the intensive training cooper underwent to learn how to catch throw and hit a baseball for the first time and the story of two now legendary hollywood actors in gary cooper and teresa wright whose nuanced performances endowed the gehrigs with upstanding dignity and cemented the baseball icon's legend. Sandomir writes with great insight and aplomb, painting a fascinating portrait of a bygone Hollywood era: a mourning widow with a dream and the shadow a legend cast on one of the greatest sports films of all time.
